

Bible Doctrine: 1st Century End Time

The Second Coming of Christ, the judgment, end of the age and last days: All would be accomplished in the generation of the Apostles 2000 years ago, according to Jesus, Paul, Peter, John, James, Silvanus and Timothy. You are not to know the day or hour, but you are to know the generation. Prophecy, future to them, past to us, is Bible doctrine.

(All Scripture taken from the NASB)

- ...until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass away from the Law, until all is accomplished. (Mt.5:18)

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, and remain until the coming of the lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air and thus we shall always be with the Lord. (1Thes.4:14-17)

While this doctrine of an end time in the generation of the apostles is reinforced throughout the New Testament, an end time in a future generation is never suggested. We do not live in the end time. Jesus and the Apostles did. It's doctrine. Jesus was not confused. We are.
